The girl in the cementery

One day Peter and Emily won a trip to New York City. They stayed in a hotel. They went to the bedrooms and they left their luggage and they went for a walk around the city.

When they came back to the hotel, there was a strange and old cementery... they were surprised, but anyway, they entered the hotel. They were sleeping and suddenly they heard some strange noises, they woke up and they started looking around the room to see where the noises were coming from. They discovered that the noises came from the cementery.

They went to the cementery and they met a sweet girl, who told them that the city had been very strange those days and that many crimes had happened. Many people had died. They were scared but they didn’t believe her. But suddenly, the girl took a knife and she wanted to kill them. They ran to the hotel, but the door was locked.

When the girl was about to kill Emily, she shouted and Peter told her “Don’t worry, it was just a nightmare” and she calmed down and told Peter her nightmare.

One day, we went to a hotel in Transilvania on holidays. In front of the hotel, there was a park. We wanted to go shopping but the shopping centre was closed, so we said: “Let’s go to the park.” Two hours later, we went to the park. Suddenly, everything got black and it was night... we were in a cemetery!!! We were scared... suddenly, in front of us a ghost appeared. We tried to escape but we couldn’t so we ran away. The Killer Clown

A long time ago, in Texas, there was a house near a cementery. There, a strange family lived: Amanda, a girl, two boys, mum and dad.

One day Amanda invited all her friends to a party. They were watching a horror film about a clown who ate a lot of people, when suddenly, all the lights went out. At that moment, the clown started coming out of the TV. The girls were very frightened. They crossed the street and entered the cementery. The clown said: “I`m going to kill you”. Amanda started to shout and run, but ten minutes later, she closed her eyes and when she opened them again, she was in her house with her friend again.
It had only been a nightmare.

The ghost in the mansion

In 1823 a family lived in a mansion. They were very strange because they didn’t talk to the people and there were a lot of ghosts in their house.
All the ghosts were very friendly, except for one. He was very bad and they didn't like him.
One day, the family and the ghosts were playing football and they asked the bad ghost if he wanted to play. They insisted a lot until he decided to play and he was nice to the family and the other ghosts for ever.
